

No. 8

1		2	3	4	5		6	7
		8					9
10	11				12	13
14					15
16				17
18				19
		20	21			22	23
24	25				26
27

Across

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Terrifying dungeon (from French “to forget”) 8 Edith Head High School (initials) 9 Sullivan, McMahon, Koch, Wood, Balls 10 Titaness mother of Olympian gods by brother Cronos whom she tricked into eating a stone instead of baby Zeus in ripping Greek myth 12 All (Latin) (present, scient, potent, bus etc.) 14 Large, stupid, clumsy, cloddish men 15 The Blood of the ... First of seminal Orpheus trilogy by Jean Cocteau with Lee Miller as sculpture and androgenous aerialist Barbette 16 “But of the cities of the people which the Lord thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that ...” Prescient statement of Israeli foreign policy (from Deuteronomy) 18 Affectionate term for grandfather in German cf. Oma (grandma) 19 Vito Andolini or Veronicas album (initials) 20 Itinerant sect of central India and Bengal dedicated to destroyer goddess Kali known for deceit, theft and murder by strangling 24 Extremely hard Sonny Rollins tune (in B-flat) 26 Picturesque moor in the North York Moors, North Yorkshire known for prehistoric stone marker with face 27 Famous “effect” wherein the end result of objecting to something and trying to prevent it (often by tortuous and costly means) is much, much worse than the thing itself | 2 Member of ceremonial warders of the Tower of of London responsible for prisoners held there and safeguarding British crown jewels (known for comically bulbous hat of same name) 3 Ancient capital of Tibet with enormous white palace (named after mountain abode in Buddhist tradition of bodhisattva Avalokiteshvara) 4 Ismail Haniyeh or Ivan Hutchinson or Isaac Herzog (initials) 5 Organ in vertebrates through which food passes from the pharynx to the stomach (US spelling) 6 Immutable religious principle or belief (Jesus died for our sins, Israel as historic home by divine inheritance of Jewish people etc.) 7 Legendary movie couturier known for award-winning work on Samson and Delilah and Breakfast at Tiffany's (5, 4) 11 Ethereal stringed instrument played by David to soothe King Saul in madness 13 Proprietor of popular tavern in Springfield 17 Seminal 60s rock band with Sterling Morrison, John Cale, Moe Tucker, Lou Reed (and Nico) (initials) 21 Horticultural implement with long handle and metal blade of ancient origin 22 Gra-... Greatly loved Melbourne TV personality from 60s known as the King (affectionate nickname) (3-3) 23 Famous poet known for finest lines in Australian poetry “I am still the black swan on alien waters” (first name) |
|--|--|

Down

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Esoteric image of serpent eating its tail (associated with infinity and Lindy Lee) | 25 Leonard Teale or Leon Trotsky or László Toth or Larry Tate (initials) |
|--|---|