

13.9

1	2	3		4	5		6	7	8
9				10		11
12			13					14
					15			16
17	18	19		20			21
22						23
24					25
26		27		28				29
		30	31
32

Across

- 1 City in Bavaria and scene of Black September operation during 1972 Olympic Games (also execrable Stephen Spielberg film depicting sadistic aftermath memorable for what has been called the worst sex scene in American cinema history)
- 6 Urdu for crown (Mahal etc.)
- 9 Two-door vehicle with cargo tray known for congregating in world record numbers at annual Deni “muster”
- 10 “But most thro’ midnight streets I hear / How the youthful Harlots curse / Blasts the new-born Infants tear / And blights with plagues the Marriage ...” Blake London
- 12 Wilderness between Jerusalem and Jericho where Jesus was tempted by the Devil (and the Good Samaritan helped the man who fell among robbers in timeless parable answering question “Who is my neighbour?”)
- 14 Emperor of Ethiopia worshipped as God by Jamaicans (mostly high) (initials)
- 15 Rosy Crucifixion (initials)
- 16 in the NT Ribald campaign for tourism in Northern Territory by edgy new ad agency with extensive merch aimed at youth market
- 17 Famous street in San Francisco (in 60s)
- 21 Affirmatory interjection used frequently by Japanese conveying groveling politeness
- 22 Formal charge of a serious criminal offense (inciting an insurrection etc.)
- 24 Dawn Davenport or Don Dunstan (initials)

- 25 Latin for this (ad)
- 26 Reflections in a Golden ... Largely forgotten 1967 John Huston film notable for arresting amber look and extraordinary performance by Marlon Brando as repressed homosexual army major (married to Elizabeth Taylor)
- 28 Burgeoning genre of airport fiction for largely female readership
- 30 Latin for sorrowful (Mater, Via)
- 32 Political philosophy associated with Margaret Thatcher, Ronald Reagan and Jeff Kennett (deregulation, dismantling of welfare state, extension of ethos of competitive markets into all areas of life) to remedy stagflation of 70s

Down

- 1 One engaged in struggle on behalf of (or against the enemies of) Islam to attain a praiseworthy goal (fusion with God, justice for Palestine etc.)
- 2 “Maori western” of 1983 with charismatic, ex-con star Anzac Wallace as rogue soldier in colonial New Zealand (with rave reviews from Quentin Tarantino and Pauline Kael)
- 3 Irish dissident hanged in Melbourne in 1880 (first name)
- 4 Argentinian revolutionary assassinated in Bolivia in 1967 (first name)
- 5 Attractive male celebrity arousing intense romantic ardour in female admirers such Zac Efron, Tyrone Power or Zayn

13.9 (contd.)

Down (contd.)

- 6 Hard-boiled private investigator role played by Frank Sinatra in 60s (Lady in Cement etc.) (initials)
- 7 School of American art of early 20th century with aesthetic of gritty realism
- 8 Crafty, sly or intriguing; given to casuistry, equivocation and dissembling in a manner historically associated with powerful, elite sect (see 20 down)
- 11 Political organization led by Nelson Mandela officially removed from the US terrorism watch list in 2008 (1, 1, 1)
- 13 Animal skin worn by Athena (often depicted with Gorgon’s head and emitting terrifying sound in battle) or alternatively shield of Zeus (conferring protection or patronage)
- 18 Capp, Gibb, Griffiths, Williams, Warhol, Randy etc.
- 19 Irish diaspora (initials)
- 20 Divisive candidate in 2016 US presidential election described by Justin Raimondo as eliciting either “revulsion or ennui” (and by Professor Norman Finkelstein memorably as “the monster married to the other monster”) (unsuccessful) (initials)
- 21 Eric Bana role (not affable kickboxer Con Petropoulos, mythical king Uther Pendragon, psychopath Chopper Reed or tortured Mossad agent Avner Kaufman) (or troubled policeman Aaron Falk haunted by murky past in remote outback town)
- 23 Towering figure of modern British sculpture whose late works Clement Greenberg said looked like outsized turds
- 27 Capital of 17th century Japan in period of Tokugawa shogunate
- 28 2019 Netflix horror film about hyper-allergic bubble boy (SPOILER AHEAD) revealed at end to be child of Satan (48% approval rating on Rotten Tomatoes)
- 29 ... ibn Maryam Penultimate prophet and messenger of God in Islam
- 31 Oslo (or Ottolenghi) lunch (initials)